In order to meet the U.S. Department of Education Teacher Assistance Corps interpretation of the federal law content requirements, districts may review transcripts and professional development related to K-6 teaching assignments to determine if teachers meet the "major equivalent" requirements. Elementary and/or early childhood "major equivalent" under Utah's HOUSSE is met if a teacher's undergraduate and/or post-graduate course work includes 36 semester or 54 quarter hours of elementary content courses in science, math, reading and language arts, the arts, and social studies.

Teacher's name _____ CACTUS ID# (or SS #) _____

1. Teacher has a current Utah level 2 Professional Educator License? ☐ Yes ☐ No (cannot qualify through HOUSSE)

2. Teacher has demonstrated competency equivalent to 36 semester hours (54 quarter hours) of undergraduate courses, graduate courses, and/or professional development in the following subject areas. Please indicate semester or quarter hours in each category and briefly explain the type of credit, i.e., undergraduate/graduate course title, state/district course title. No subject area may be left blank.
